HOOPER CITY

NEWSLETTER

In 2026, Utahns will join with other states to commemorate the 250th anniversary of the founding of the United States. Utahns will come together to reflect on our nation's past, build community, and look toward the future.

For nearly 250 years, Americans from all walks of life and every corner of the country have had a hand in shaping our nation's history. From time immemorial, the area now known as Utah was populated by Indigenous people. Today's eight federally recognized Tribal nations include the Confederated Tribes of the Goshute, Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah, San Juan Southern Paiute Tribe, Northwestern Band of the Shoshone Nation, Skull Valley Band of Goshute, Ute Indian Tribe of the Uintah and Ouray Reservation, Ute Mountain Ute Tribe, and the Navajo Nation. Spain claimed what is now Utah as part of New Spain from 1500 to 1821. In 1776 a group of Spanish Catholic priests, the Domínguez-Escalante Expedition, left Santa Fe hoping to find a route to the California coast as they traveled through parts of Utah.

No two Americans began their journey in the same place. Except for Native Americans, our ancestors came to these lands from elsewhere. For many Utahns, the quest for statehood provides a lens to reflect upon the full sweep of our nation's past and a deeper understanding of integration and the meaning and promise of America.

The semiquincentennial is a chance for everyone to feel a part of this major milestone in our nation. We can celebrate courage, liberty, and sacrifice, while also reckoning with difficult truths. By fostering a sense of belonging and coming together with our local communities, we can ensure that Utahns of all ages and backgrounds see themselves in American history.

On November 6, 2025, Hooper City Council passed Resolution No. 2025-06; Supporting America250 Utah, and Recognizing and Approving the Hooper City Utah250 Community Committee. Hooper City is excited to be a part of this important celebration. Throughout the year, activities and events will be planned honoring our country, Utah's and Hooper's legacy.

Each month in the newsletter there will be a section highlighting what the city will be commemorating during the month. There are state wide events, along with national and local events. Please watch the attached link showcasing this year of celebration and service.
